

When Trinity Institute Is Over, What Do You Do Next?

BUILDING AN ETHICAL ECONOMY: Spirituality and Practice

A Live Webcast and Chat with Mike Schut, author of Money and Faith: The Search for Enough and Simpler Living, Compassionate Life: A Christian Perspective

Thursday, February 18, 2010, 1pm Eastern Time

After Trinity Institute, we hope you will take what you've heard, learned, and experienced back to your parish, school, or community and become active in Building an Ethical Economy.

If you'd like to continue the conversation and explore ideas for taking action locally, join this Trinity Institute live webcast conversation with Economic and Environmental Affairs Officer of The Episcopal Church, Mike Schut. He will recap key ideas from the conference and moderate a discussion around questions you ask.

The conversation will take place at ustream.tv with a live chat room that will enable participants to submit questions.

To join the conversation, simply go to www.ustream.tv/channel/Spirituality-and-Practice at 1pm EST on Thursday, February 18, 2010.

For complete information and additional resources visit
trinitywallstreet.org/Spirituality&Practice

Or, to receive complete information via email, sign up during the conference at the Building an Ethical Economy: Spirituality and Practice resources table in the Seminar Room.

For discussion forums, real time news updates, videos and more:
Follow us on twitter @ twitter.com/trinitywallst
Friend us on Facebook @ Trinity Wall Street
Become a Facebook fan of Trinity Institute